MILWAUKEE:
Saturday Morning, Apr. 5, 1856.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The Cunard Steamer Asia, with Liverpool dates to the 22nd ult., arrived at New York last evening. Details of her news will be found under the telegraph head. The prominent features are, the certainty of Peace, the consequent fall in Breadstuffs and rise in Consols, and the general jubilation in France at the birth of Napoleon IV. The Asia brings no tidings of the long-missing Pacific, now indeed despaired of.

The call for a REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION at Philadelphia, on the 22d of June, will be found in this morning's paper.

Congress divides its time between the Navy Board and Kansas, without much progress with either.

Mr. BUCHANAN has "qualified" as a suitable Pro-Slavery candidate for the Presidency, by fully endorsing the Kansas—Nebraska act, with all its evil consequences.

Our advertising Columns and local items, this morning, bear eloquent witness to the rapid revival of business with the opening Spring.

Presidential Speculations.

The New York Courier & Enquirer of March 28th, discusses, at some length, the probabilities of the coming Presidential election. Premising that the friends and spokesmen of Mr. FILLMORE at Washington have recently given the most satisfactory assurances to the Southern Know-Nothings that he will stand by the Kansas-Nebraska Act, the Courier expresses the opinion that the "Fillmore and Donelson" ticket will receive the elective votes of the Southern Whig States. The Courier holds, of course, that there will be three candidates in the field, Know-Nothing, Democratic and Republican. Of these it says:

> The Democrat will receive the votes of all Democrats who approve of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, Mr. Fillmore the votes of all Whigs who approve of that steadfast proceeding, and of the slavery agitation and Kansas outrages which necessarily followed, while the Republican will be supported by every individual, no matter to what party he may have belonged heretofore, who is honestly opposed to the extension of slavery into free territory by the direct action of the General Government, and who looks upon the repeal of the Missouri Compromise as a breach of plighted faith, to which, and to which only, is fairly attributable the renewal of the existing slavery agitation, and the outrages which have recently been perpetrated in Kansas, under the protection of, if not with the direct sanction, of the Executive head of the Government.

This being the programme, the Courier thus confidently expresses its opinion as to the result:

> "We feel assured, that in the approaching Presidential contest, we, the aggrieved party of the North, will triumph; and in that triumph the South will find its security against future agitation upon the question of Slavery, and the whole country be secured against the schemes of dismionists, whether of the North or South."

We share in these anticipations. Every day makes more clear and simple the great issue which is to be decided at the November election There is no longer reason to doubt that the contest will turn upon the single point of Resistance to Slavery Aggression. The disturbing and mischievous element of Know Nothingism—so far, at least, as the North is concerned—will be excluded from the canvass, and the friends of FREEDOM, marshalled under the banner which our fathers followed to battle and to victory, will contend, face to face and single handed, with the advocates or apologists of SLAVERY.

In such a contest, it would be a libel upon our country to doubt the success of the right. Yet that success is not to be secured without thorough organization and united efforts. With these, the electoral vote of Wisconsin is sure for the Republican cause and candidate. Let every Freeman and lover of Freedom in the State bear this fact in mind and be ready to do his part, when the trumpet sounds the note of preparation.

☞ The expenses attending the suits in the case of John H. Day and the Great India Rubber Litigation, exceed the sum of $600,000.—The amount claimed under Day's patent is some $5,000,000.

FUNNY AND FRENCH.—The French Emperor has hit upon a decidedly novel and certainly popular way of celebrating the birth of his son and heir. Eugene is to be Godmother to all children born in France on the same day with her boy—to wit, on March 15th—and these lucky little people are to receive $600 apiece for coming into the world at the right time. The only condition of the gift is, that all the boys shall be named Louis, and all the girls Eugenie. The telegraph computes the number at twenty five hundred! "Vot a peoples—vot a country"!

Charter and Town Election.

Beloit City elects the entire Republican ticket by some 200 majority. Sheboygan City, the Democratic ticket without opposition. E. Fox COOK, Mayor; F. J. MILLS, Police Justice. In Kenosha City, the vote for Mayor stood; Hughes (Dem.) 364; Sholes (Rep.) 280; the balance of the offices are pretty equally divided. Waukesha County, as far as heard from, stands as follows:

Democrats—A. F. Pratt, Waukesha, M. Underhill Eagle; M. Cleveland, New Berlin.

Republicans—Ira Rowe, Brookfield; J. Noon, Merton; Thos. Sugden, Genesee; A. H. Griffin, Pewaukee; Ira Blood, Vernon; Chas. D. Parker, Muskego, D. McKercher, Oconomowoc; James Clark, Summit; Delafield and Menomonee both elected Republicans.

In Menomonee, the entire Republican ticket was elected by an average majority of over 50. Jefferson County, town of Jefferson elects the Democratic ticket by 50 majority, O. H. WARD, Chairman of Supervisors. In Palmyra, Republican ticket elected, N. F. SMITH, Chairman. In Koskonong, E. P. MAY (Ind.) is elected Supervisor by 163 majority D. over L. MORRISON (Dem.) member of Assembly and zealous Barstowite.

In Walworth County; Whitewater elects People's ticket, without opposition; S. WARNEY, Chairman of Board; H. J. CURTICE (late of the Gazette) Superintendent of Schools; La Grange elects Republican ticket, D. W. C. BARROW, Chairman.

Menasha, Winnebago County, elects the Democratic ticket, and J. CROWLEY (of the Advocate) Chairman of the Board by 58 majority. Barstow elects the entire Republican ticket: C. C. REMINGTON, Chairman of the Board.

The Kenosha City Charter Election.

Mr. Editor:—The Sentinel of this morning announces that Mr. Hughs, the Mayor-elect of Kenosha, has run as the anti-railroad candidate, against Mr. Sholes, the railroad candidate. This will be news to the democratic electors of our neighboring city, who heard nothing of any such issue on that day. But this is not the first time that the Sentinel has evinced a disposition to misrepresent Kenosha and injure her standing in connection with her Railroad enterprise. The citizens of Kenosha will properly appreciate the Sentinel's motive in sacrificing the reputation of the city to save the credit of black republicanism.—Wisconsin of yesterday.

Some anonymous knave, or fool contributes yesterday's Wisconsin the above communication. A very few words will suffice to expose this small lie. Here is what the Sentinel of Friday said, and all that it said, about the Kenosha election:

> Kenosha City elects Volney Hughes Mayor, by 50 majority over C. C. Sholes. The issue was Rail Road or anti-Rail Road, (according to the Racine Advocate) and the latter prevailed.

For what we said, we gave our authority. It is the Wisconsin of the previous day made precisely the same announcement, on its own responsibility. And yet this sneaking scribbler passed over the Wisconsin's original statement to carp at that quoted in the next day's Sentinel.' Of course, the only object was to "misrepresent" the Sentinel and "injure its standing" with the good people of Kenosha, who "will properly appropriate the motives" of the Wisconsin's lying correspondent, without help, or hint from us.

Politics in Oznukee—Barstowism at a Discount.

PORT WASHINGTON, April 3.

Messrs. Editors: You may recollect that last year we had quite an exciting Town election at this place. This year, all parties, all nationalities were forgotten, and a people's ticket nominated and elected.—It was composed of all political faiths—Hon. W. H. Ramsey, was chosen chairman of the Board.

Barstow, you may have noticed, has had too few sympathizers in this place, from the time he usurped the executive office until he abdicated and sneaked away, to count. Our representative, Mr. Beger, does not find a single one of his constituents, who supports him in his vote against recognising Mr. BASSFORD as Governor, or excuses him for it. The great majority of the Germans here, have continually expressed the utmost confidence in the integrity, and ability of our Supreme Court. When Barstow supposed he could count on the Germans in case he should rebel against the laws,—they were not a party to his calculations.

The Committees appointed by the Milwaukee, Madison and Winnebago District Conventions and Milwaukee Presbytery, to consult with reference to the establishment of a Female Seminary, are hereby called to meet in the Congregational Church in the city of Watertown on Wednesday the 23d day of April 1856, at 2 o'clock, P. M., with the expectation of remaining during the next day, one or more.

Address upon the subject of female education, may be expected in the evening of Wednesday. All interested in the object of this notice are requested to attend.

OAK GROVE, March 28th, 1856.

U. S. MINT.—The report of the Director of the United States Mint shows the amount of precious metals received during the past year at the Mint and branches to be fifty million one hundred and fifty-one thousand nine hundred and two dollars. The total coinage for the year amounts to fifty-six-million three hundred and twelve thousand seven hundred and thirty-three dollars, comprised in sixteen million nine hundred and seven thousand eight hundred and seven pieces. The whole coinage of the United States since 1793 has been four hundred and ninety-eight million eight hundred and sixty-six thousand five hundred and sixty-seven dollars, of which amount there has been received from California, since 1848, three hundred and thirteen million two hundred and thirty-four thousand five hundred and two dollars.

OLD SILVER WANTED.—The Director of the U. S. Mint at Philadelphia, gives notice that he will purchase silver for coinage, payable in the new issues. The rate at which the coin will be received is about as follows:

Five franc pieces	99 cents each.
Mexican and South American dollars	100¾ do
Old Spanish dollars	105 do
Revolutionary, or "hammered" dollars, (often mistaken for the new Span. dollar)	101 do
Half dollars of the U. S. coined before 1837	92½ do
The same since 1837 to the last of single of standard	92½ do

Quarter-dollars are proportionally less productive of premium, while dimes and half dimes, coined before 1837, have lost rather more by wear, on an average, than the premium would make up; those coined since 1837, to 1853, will average a premium of ¾ per cent. on their nominal value.

German, Swedish, Danish and Norwegian crowns	114 cents each
Old French crowns	114	60
German florins	41¼	6
Prussian and Hanoverian thalers	72	60

American plate, best manufacture, 120 to 122 cents per ounce.

Genuine British plate, 125 cents per ounce.

BEAVER DAM REPUBLICAN.—The Sentinel says that the Republican ticket was elected throughout in Beaver Dam. The following are the Supervisors and Clerk elect:

Supervisors, F. H. Kribs, Chairman, G. H. Stewart, L. H. Marvin.
Clerk, G. C. Higbee.—

Judicial Elections.

The Fon du Lac Union of yesterday publishes the following partial returns of the election for Circuit Judge in that Circuit.

	Gosline.	Eastman.

Winnebago " (8 ts.)	286 maj.	——
Calumnet " (1 t.)	——	27 "
Sheboygan " (1 ts.)	1,196 "	——

Judge GOSLINE is upwards of a thousand ahead as far as heard from, and is no doubt re-elected by a large majority.

In the first Circuit JOHN M. KEEP, the Republican nominee, is elected without opposition.

In Walworth County, Judge POTTER was chosen County Judge without opposition.

To the People of the United States.

The People of the United States, without regard to past political differences or divisions, who are opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, to the policy of the present Administration, to the extension of Slavery into the Territories, in favor of the admission of Kansas as a free State, and of restoring the action of the Federal Government to the principles of Washington and Jefferson, are invited by the National Committee, appointed by the Pittsburgh Convention of the 22d of February, 1856, to send from each State three Delegates from every Congressional District, and six Delegates at large, to meet in PHILADELPHIA, on the seventeenth day of June next, for the purpose of recommending candidates to be supported for the offices of President and Vice-President of the United States.

THE WISCONSIN ELECTION SETTLED.—After a protracted contest, the people's rights have been maintained in Wisconsin, and their lawfully elected Governor judicially installed, and formally recognized by the democratic conspirators.

Having unsuccessfully attempted to defraud the people—to defy the supreme tribunal of the State, and to usurp through the Lieut. Governor the Executive's Seat, the Assembly at first holding out, finally yielding, the Democracy with its shame-spotted banner is compelled to beat an ignominious retreat.

So stupendous a fraud was never before attempted, and the overthrow of the plotters, has been signal and complete.

All honor is due to the counsel for the people of Wisconsin for the unflagging devotion they have exhibited in maintaining their rights and in overcoming all obstacles which an arrogant and unscrupulous party threw in the way. The ballot box has been vindicated, the frauds upon it exposed and the owls and bats driven into their hiding places, whence they will hardly be likely to emerge.—Chicago Journal.

The telegraph announces that the Supreme Court of Wisconsin has concluded the famous contest for the office of Governor of that State by issuing a writ of ouster against Barstow—who had, indeed, already resigned—and establishing the claim of Bashford, who had thereupon proceeded to take the oath and assume the duties of the office. This is a great triumph of right over fraud, effrontery, insolence and contemplated violence. The Supreme Court of Wisconsin, already famous throughout the Union for its glorious vindication of State rights has by its mingled firmness and moderation in this new case amply sustained its high reputation. Proceedings like this are of infinite consequence in maintaining a respect for the Judiciary, which the conduct of too many Judges both State and Federal, has within a short period greatly tended to shake.—N. Y. Tribune.

Horrible and Fatal Duel in Prussia.

The Berlin correspondent of Le Nord gives the following details of the fatal duel previously reported to have taken place between the President of Police, Herr von Hinckeldy, and Herr von Rochow, a young nobleman, a member of one of the oldest families in Prussia, and a Landwehr officer.

The duel took place, it appears, in the forest of Grunewald, between the hours of 9 and 11 this morning, (Monday last.) M. de Hinckeldy had for second M. Munhausen, one of the first employees in the Ministry of the Interior. M. de Rochow's second was a member of the Chamber of Peers, but I am ignorant of his name. The duel was with pistols. The distance was fifteen paces, and each of the adversaries advanced five steps. It was then, you see, a veritable duel to the death. We recoil with horror, the conscience of a man of honor and a Christian groans while describing such atrocities in the midst of the nineteenth century. It had been arranged that if one of the pistols missed fire, it should be reloaded. M. de Hinckeldy fired first, but the ball did not leave his weapon; his adversary, who was at this moment putting his finger upon the trigger, had but just time to raise his pistol. This was acting like a valiant and loyal chevalier. It is only to be regretted that chivalry, in maintaining what it had of the great and generous, did not lose, in its contact with civilization, that which makes murder a right, and even a duty.

The pistols were reloaded, and having reached the distance agreed upon, the two adversaries fired. M. de Rochow was not touched, but M. de Hinckeldy fell stone dead, the ball having entered his side and pierced his heart. It is said in this city that the second of M. de Hinckeldy (M. de Munhausen) immediately left for Charlottenburg, to acquaint the King of the fatal accident.

The cause of the misfortune seems to have originated in disputes which he had with some officers of the guard on the subject of a jockey club at the Hotel Royal, where a great deal of gambling, it appears, went on. The affair has been smouldering since last summer. The measures taken by M. de Hinckeldy were not, perhaps, so exceptional as were the position and character of the young men incriminated. In the inquiry which followed, M. de Rochow accused M. de Hinckeldy of having lied—an outrage which, crowning a number of others of which he had long been the subject from the corps of officers, and even from the nobility—decided him to challenge M. de Rochow. I have before this spoken to you of the general dislike which prevailed the ranks of our noblesse and high society against this functionary, and he remained in office only because His Majesty found him so useful and faithful a servant. It is said that the exasperation of the officers after the inquiry referred to was so great that the event which we have now to deplore was unavoidable. M. de Hinckeldy leaves a wife and a young daughter.

The Imperial Babyclothes.

The Paris correspondent of the London Globe writing on Monday evening, March 10th, says:

> The desire to see the baby clothes made up for the expected child has grown to a mania. The police have found it necessary to prevent the carriages passing through the Rue Vivienne lest an accident should occur, and the ladies provided with tickets of admission are obliged, as at the outside of theatres on extraordinary occasions, to form a queue. There are two lines of ladies ranged along each side of Madame Felicie's door, extending to both ends of the Rue Vivienne. The Congress of the Plenipotentiaries has sunk to nothing. Madam Felicie and her beautiful work eclipse Buol, Orloff, and even my Lord Clarendon. The five points yield to point d'Alencon. As curiosity must be excited about a matter which in Paris is deemed of surpassing importance, we are happy to have the support of Galignani's descriptive pen:—
>
> "The Princess Mathilde, on Saturday, visited the layette prepared by Mlle. Felicie, of the Rue Vivienne, for the imperial infant. During the whole of that day and yesterday an uninterrupted stream of persons of the first distinction in Paris visited these objects. The following is a very imperfect description of the articles exhibited:—
>
> "The first thing that strikes the spectator in entering Mlle Felicie's warerooms is the exquisite beauty of the various articles displayed to view. Three rooms, one of them of great size, are thrown open, and every thing exhibited in them, forms part of the layette. At the first glance one would imagine that the only color to be seen was white; but afterward the eye perceives that the ribbons and satin, used for trimming several of the articles, are blue. But as blue is the color appropriated to male children, as rose or pink is to those of the opposite sex, the idea would occur to the looker-on that every thing had been prepared exclusively for a prince. Such, however, is not the fact, for as the imperial infant has been vouc ee blene, blue is used in such a case indiscriminately for either sex.
>
> "As some of our readers are not perhaps aware of what vou ee blanc exactly means, it may be as well to state that some times in France, a mother consecrates her child before its birth to the Virgin, placing the infant under her especial protection; and, as a sign of her having done so, clothing the child in white only (with rare ornaments of blue sometimes,) and keeping it in such attire for a certain number of years—three, five, or seven, and on some occasions to the period of the child's first communion. It is in accordance with this custom that some of the articles of the Imperial layette have been ornamented with blue without any reference to the sex of the infant. In the large room at Mdlle. Felicie's, all the tables along the sides as well as an exceedingly broad one down the centre, are completely covered with the most beautiful articles of lace, embroidery, silk, satin and cambric that perhaps, were ever collected together for any one child.
> "The number of dresses alone appeared so countless that we took the liberty of enquiring the number, and were informed twelve dozen.—All are embroidered with such rare perfection as to really merit the rank as works of art, and the vast quantity of point d' Alencon with which they are trimmed must be of immense value. Along the tables are also to be seen baby cups, mats and head-dresses in such abundance as to excite one's wonder, and of these, also, twelve dozen have been prepared—all beautifully embroidered, and all trimmed with the most costly lace.—Twelve dozen appears to have been the magical number in the order given, as everything—stockings, gloves shoes, boots, gaiters, (such exquisite gaiters!) chemises, sheets, &c., were all to the same extent. All the sheets were marked with the Imperial crown and cypher, and trimmed with Valenciennes lace.
>
> "Of course no richer articles were not ordered in such profusion, as, for instance, the long mantles, of which there were a dozen for state occasions, most richly embroidered and trimmed, while others were in satin, in silk, or in cachemere, but all of the greatest beauty. The quilts, also, some in blue satin and some in white, were on a more limited scale, but all as rich as human ingenuity could make them. At the end of the room stands the cradle—not that which the city of Paris is preparing for the Imperial infant, but still one of great beauty. A lofty fleche at the stead, formed of a vine branch of gilt bronze, gently bends over the part in which the infant is to sleep. From the fleche, curtains of Mechlin lace lined with blue silk are suspended at each side, the whole being looped up with gold cords terminating with torsades to match of the same metal.
>
> "One couvre pieds is of white satin, and another of blue, and the whole is covered over with Alengon lace, with the initials N. E. in the centre, the whole producing an effect of the richest elegance. Opposite the cradle, on the centre table, stands the robe de bapteme, all of point d'Alencon, with mantle and head dress to match, Near it is a muff of ermine, with a mantle of white satin lined with ermine. On the table lay the child's corral for the period of teething, in this instance made of amber; the ball for the uncle being hollowed from the solid mass. This little plaything alone cost 600 f. Near it was placed an amber necklace, with a small gold medallion in the centre, on which the Archbishop of Paris had given his benediction. Three corbeilles de bapteme lay near, all lined with blue satin, and covered with Alengon lace, and bearing the Imperial cypher and arms.
> "To go on would be to fill a column, and yet not a word has been said of the contents of the other rooms equally worthy of being examined. We cannot, however, help stating that the articles prepared for the nurse (twelve dozen in number) are also of extraordinary beauty and richness, as may be judged from the fact that her aprons are embroidered with as much care as the articles for the child, and like them trimmed with Alencon lace. The taste with which the display is laid out is not the smallest charm of this exhibition, which of its kind has perhaps never been equalled. It adds to the admiration excited to learn that the whole was designed, embroidered, and made up in a short space of two months and a half."

THE FARCE ENDED.—The disgraceful drama of supplemental rascality, has had a three months run at the capitol, and been brought to a close. Forgery has failed of its object. One of the most shameless and stupendous frauds ever attempted upon a people, has been followed up and exposed, and a political swindler driven from the place he usurped. The people have triumphed over wrong, and Coles Bashford is Governor of Wisconsin. The usurper goes out under a brand, which would burn and blister forever upon the brow of ordinary political villainy. He goes out forever.

☞ Every lover of law, justice, and truth, will rejoice at the result of the "Gubernatorial Trial." Right has been vindicated—the credit of the State and the honor of her people, has been vindicated. The infamy of sustaining Barstow in his daring swindle, has been averted, and the choice of Wisconsin placed in the possession of his rights.—Jefferson Co. Republican.

The Dells.

These narrows in the Wisconsin river are situated in Adams county, about a mile and a half above the place where we are located, and are considerably noted for their wild scenery, and especially for their somewhat dangerous character in rafting through them. The perpendicular rocky banks are fifty or sixty feet high, and for half a mile or more the river is narrowed to about one-fourth its average width. In one place the rocks on each side are only about fifty feet apart; and this space is spanned by a timber bridge, called "Dell Bridge." Near the west end of this bridge is an opening in the rocks, called "Black Hawk's Cave," because, it is said, Black Hawk once secreted himself there to avoid his pursuers. We lately visited this cave, approaching it from the ice on the river. We walked in upon the ice, about twenty feet; then climbed a rather dangerous precipice some thirty feet high, from which point one may wind around and upwards, and emerge at the top of the bank; but we chose to to take on back track rail or than climb higher. In the spring, when the river is high, we understand the water rushes through the Dells with great force; and as the river is quite crooked, raftsmen find it very exciting, as well as rather dangerous, passing through. Persons from the vicinity frequently resort there during the rafting seasons to see the rafts pass through; and we have been informed that sometimes as many as a hundred rafts pass through in a single day. It is thought that when the dam at the place shall be completed, the water will set back so as to considerably check the force of the current at the Dells, and render rafting though there comparatively safe.

In the spring men and boys have great sport fishing there. Each has his spear, with a handle ten or fifteen feet long, and a cord attached, and, perching himself upon some projecting rock, fifteen, twenty or twenty five feet above the water, he watches till he sees a good sized pickerel, cat-fish or sturgeon turn up on the water; then, quick as a hawk upon his prey, he darts his spear at the victim, and deliberately draws back, by his cord, spear, fish and all. One part of his operations of most importance to those engaged in it—that is to make sure their footing, so that they shall not draw themselves in instead of drawing the sturgeon out.

A short distance from the Dells, to the north east, is a very high hill, from the top from which the whole country, for twenty miles around, may be seen. We think when our Railroad shall be completed, that from this, and perhaps some other hills in the region, the cars may be seen to pass for twenty-five or thirty, and possibly forty miles.—In the vicinity of the Dells, the ground is covered with wintergreens; and huckleberries, walnuts, butternuts, &c., abound. We conclude that all these attractions, especially the wild, romantic scenery of the Dells, will always make them a place of resort for seekers of pleasure.—Wisconsin Mirror.

Brownlow on the Virginia Democratic Convention.

Mr. Brownlow, in the KNOXVILLE Whig of the 22d, thus gives his report of the late Virginia Democratic State Convention in Richmond:

> I am styled by Mr. Ritchie, of the Enquirer, "the grand high priest of the Know Nothings of Tennessee," and therefore "authority to the brethren in Virginia." Now, I did report, and I now repeat the report, that I called at the sitting of the Democratic State Convention, in the African church in Richmond, where I remained until a late hour—I report that of the six hundred delegates present, not less than one-third of the number were either drunk or under the influence of ardent spirits—I report that it was the most ruffianly and disorderly assembly I ever was in—that the editor of a Lynchburg Democratic paper put in nomination Hunter for the Presidency, and swore by G—d, in a public speech, that he was ready for the contest!—Something like one-third of the delegation hissed them—whereupon he called them, and said if they were accustomed to wear brown cloth coats and clean shirts, and had never been convicted of penitentiary offences, and would give him their names, he would settle with them on the coming day, by the rules governing honorable men!

Governor Floyd, who made the only sensible and sober remarks I heard, stated that gentlemen need not to make light of the Know Nothing nominations at Philadelphia—that party had nominated a man both pop ular and conservative, whom thousands would delight to honor, and to beat him, even in the Old Dominian, the Democracy would have to work like beavers.'

I further report that Mr. Ritchie was in that convention, and can testify that I report correctly. I hope he will copy this my last and official report.

A PERILOUS JOURNEY.—The Cleveland Leader tells the following story relative to an escape of fugitives to Canada on the ice via Sandusky.—That paper gets the facts from a gentleman from Windsor, where the fugitives finally made a landing.

> "After crossing Sandusky Bay, they made direct ready for the Islands, where they arrived before dark. Here they partook of some refreshments, and allowed their horses to rest. Shortly after midnight they resumed their perilous journey; but after proceeding a few miles, they were beset with a furious snow storm and lost their way.—About 9 o'clock next morning they found themselves near land, which they at first took to be ice, cut-fish or sturgeon turn up on the water; then, quick as a hawk upon his prey, he darts his spear at the victim, and deliberately draws back, by his cord, spear, fish and all. One part of his operations of most importance to those engaged in it—that is to make sure their footing, so that they shall not draw themselves in instead of drawing the sturgeon out.
>
> A short distance from the Dells, to the north east, is a very high hill, from the top from which the whole country, for twenty miles around, may be seen. We think when our Railroad shall be completed, that from this, and perhaps some other hills in the region, the cars may be seen to pass for twenty-five or thirty, and possibly forty miles.—In the vicinity of the Dells, the ground is covered with wintergreens; and huckleberries, walnuts, butternuts, &c., abound. We conclude that all these attractions, especially the wild, romantic scenery of the Dells, will always make them a place of resort for seekers of pleasure.—Wisconsin Mirror.

Doings in Congress.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, April 1, 1856.

Judge Warner, of Georgia made to-day in the House (Committee of the Whole) the ablest, calmest, most thorough and effective Pro-Slavery speech of the session. He assumed that slave labor impoverishes and exhausts soils; that continued expansion is essential to its existence and must be had. He wanted no Federal law for itself. Mr. Allison of Pennsylvania cogently replied, and Mr. Smith of Tennessee has the floor for to-morrow. Gen. Grenger will follow in the most radical and sweeping Anti-Slavery speech ever made in Congress, one possibly excepted.—The debate on the President's Message will probably run through the week.

The Oregon Indian Appropriation bill passed of course.

The Senate still saws away on the action of the Naval Retiring Board. I apprehend the Navy must be abolished to rid the country of this intolerable bore. It will probably lead to no result.

The Kansas Speakers.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, April 1, 1856.

Governor Robinson and Senator Lane of Kansas arrived here this evening. The former will return soon. Gen Lane will speak at Harrisburg, Pa., on Friday evening of this week, and at Columbus, Ohio, Monday evening next.

H. G.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 1.

The prominent feature of the anti-Nebraska caucus at the Capitol last night was a speech by Gen. Pomeroy, who responded to a general call to hear from the State of Kansas.

In regard to public opinion there, he said, people were anxious to have the State admitted with the Topeka constitution.

Emigration was pouring into Kansas at the rate of a thousand a week, the enumeration being made at Kansas City.

He graphically described the alleged invasion of the Territory by Missourians, and the threatened capture by them of Lawrence. He denounced the elections that had taken place in that Territory as illegal. His assurance that the people there were overwhelmingly on the side of freedom, was hailed by the anti-Nebraskaites in caucus with wild delight.

He was certain that any interference with their rights by invaders would be seriously resisted.

He made a long speech and answered many questions propounded by the listeners.

The caucus then adjourned until Monday next.

AN EX-OFFICER ARRESTED.—The Madison Patriot of yesterday states that D. W. SEAVER, late Deputy State Treasurer, has been arrested, on complaint of E. H. JANSSEN, late State Treasurer, for embezzlement. The Patriot adds that Ex-Governor BARSTOW and ANDREW PROUDFIT became bail for Mr. SEAVER.

APPLETON ELECTION.—The town election of Grand Chute resulted in the success of the democratic ticket, with one exception, by an average majority of 50 to 60. The Crescent indulges in the luxury of an extra, an eagle, and a loud shout on the occasion.

BELOIT A CITY.—The People of Beloit voted on Tuesday last to accept their city charter, and at the same time elected the entire Republican ticket for the town by some 200 majority.

THE TIDE OF TRAVEL.—The tide of Spring travel already sets strongly hitherward, and Wisconsin will receive this year a very large accession to her population from the enterprising people of the Eastern States, as well as from beyond Sea.

The Lake Shore Railroad is already put to its best efforts to provide means for transportation of the crowds of people pushing for this point and the interior. Each train brings from five to eight cars full of passengers. Of course the great majority push on at once by railroad in different directions for the interior. The La Crosse and the Eoricon roads seem just now to be getting the principal benefit of travel, the emigration setting toward the centre and north.

NEW YORK, April 3.

Gorham A. Worth, President of the City Bank of N. Y., died this morning.

XXXIVth Congress—First Session.

WASHINGTON, April 3.

SENATE.—The Senate to-day passed a bill for the relief of widows and orphans of the officers and seamen of the ship-of-war Albany; also joint resolutions declaring the manner in which the pension laws for the benefit of the Cherokee Indians shall be executed.

Mr. Collamer, Kansas affairs being under consideration, argued to show that by a practical construction of the Constitution, Congress never submitted the question of freedom or slavery to the people of the Territories, and insisted Congress had the power to legislate therein. He defended the Emigrant Aid Society, and read from South Carolina papers to show that the South had adopted similar measures, thus entering into competition with the North, which was altogether proper. Without concluding, he yielded to a motion to adjourn.

HOUSE.—The House was considering the Senate's amendment to the Deficiency Appropriation bill. The proceedings were uninteresting.

Adjourned.

From the Richmond Enquirer.

A Good Suggestion.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Since you have predicted the possible and probable declination of Mr. Fillmore, and that too, upon seemingly strong grounds, I beg that you will insert the following suggestion for the benefit of the Know-Nothings in the event of that deplorable contingency, namely; that if Mr. Fillmore should decline, George Washington Parke Custis shall be substituted in his stead, so that the ticket shall then read,

For President,
GEORGE WASELINGTON parke custis;
For Vice President,
ANDREW JACKSON donelson.

LAKE ONTARIO.—Our harbor is open, but the weather is unfavorable to navigation. The steamer Highlander purposed to start for Cobourg, Toronto, &c., on Thursday night, but just then a severe snow storm set in, which had not spent itself entirely yesterday at noon. The boat lay at the wharf, ready to take advantage of the first clear weather. The amount of freight here is small, but on the other side there is wheat, flour, &c., awaiting the first boats. The upper harbors are said to be all clear.—Rochester Democrat April 1st.

THE DIFFERENCE.—Last season, our harbor was all alive with business before this time, and vessels were arriving and departing for Canadian ports. The first sail vessel arrived here was the Cornelius, from Coburg, with a cargo of flour, on the 23d of March; the Marco Polo arrived the same day. The propeller St. Nicholas sailed for Toronto on the 19th, and returned on the 23th. Navigation generally will be a month behind this season, though our harbor may be open and vessels departing and arriving in less time.—Oswego Palladium, March 29

READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVE

PROFESSOR WOOD'S Hair Restorative is no doubt the most wonderful discovery of this age of progress, for it will restore, permanently, grey hair to its original color, cover the head of the bald with a most luxuriant growth, remove at once all dandruff and itching cure all Scrofula and other cutaneous eruptions, such as scald head, &c It will cause as if by magic, nervous or periodical headache, make the hair soft, glossy, and wavy, and preserve the color perfectly, and the hair from falling to extreme old age We could give the testimony of more than one hundred thousand to the truth of every word we have written See circular and the following

CARLYLE, Ill, June 29, 1855

I have used Prof Wood's Hair Restorative and have admitted its wonderful effect My hair was becoming, as I thought prematurely grey, but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so.

SIDNEY BREESE,

Ex Senator United States

VINCENNES, Ind, June 10, 1855

Prof D J Wood Dear Sir—As you are about to manufacture extensively and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it, that I have for several years been in the habit of using other hair restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know It entirely cleanses the head from dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance, and all this without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops I would therefore recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture of hair

Respectfully yours,

WILSON KING

A gentleman of Boston writes to his friends in New Bedford, thus

To your inquiries I would reply that when I first commenced using Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, my hair was almost white, and had been so for the last ten years and it was very thin on the top of my head, and very loose and pulled out freely but I found that before I had used the second bottle it (which was eight weeks) my hair was quite changed to its original color (light brown) and is now free from dandruff and quite moist I have had my hair cut five or six times since the change, and have never seen anything like white hair starting from the roots, and it is now as thick as it ever was, and does not come out at all It has proved in my case all that I could wish or ask

Yours, &c,

POLICE COURT, APRIL 4.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE

John Smith was brought up for being drunk, and fined $1. Peter Grabb, drunk and disorderly, fined $3. Fredrick Lawry, do, $3.

PAIL AND TUB FACTORY.—DAGGETT & RICE'S Factory, on the Water Power, is worth a visit. We witnessed yesterday the operations for a few minutes, with a good deal of interest. By the aid of simple machinery, six men can turn out 500 pails, or 150 tubs per day, ready for the painter, with no great exertion. One man takes the blocks and with a " whip" of the saw they are cut to the requisite length for the stave. Another applies them to a horizontal, tubular saw, and one after another, the staves are cut out in the rough. A third takes the staves and planes the edges, making them so as to match with a kind of mortise and tenon. A fourth sets them up in an iron circle, applies them to a machine securely, the chips fly from the outside, and an application of sandpaper gives a smooth surface as the latter whirls around. A fourth takes the tub, and by another lathe, turns out the inside smooth, with a groove for the bottom. The sixth man, meanwhile, is getting the bottoms ready, by the use of another machine, and those set, we have the tubs completed and ready for the painter.

This factory used some 20 tons of the light iron for hoops last year, and their business drives them all the time. They made last year about $20,000 worth of pails and tubs, and their articles are said to be much better than those which come from the East.

THE ICE.—The ice does not yet leave the river entirely, but is wasting away rapidly. Around the bridges, huge cakes of it remain to show what has been, while there is an accumulation around the bend of the river, carrying upon the surface masses of rubbish which we hope will pass out into the lake, and not be deposited in the channel.

NOTICE TO THE BAR.—The address to the Milwaukee Bar, on the occasion of the death of Benjamin Newhall, Esq., will, by request, be delivered by the Rev. J. M. Buchanan, on Sunday, April 6th, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, in the North Presbyterian Church.

The members of the Bar are notified to meet in the Law Room in the rear of the church, and proceed in a body to the service.

ANOTHER NEW STORE.—We saw, yesterday, the plans for a new and spacious store, which H. FRIEND & Bros. propose to erect on the lot now occupied by them, No. 170 East Water Street. The store is to be 90 feet front, by 100 in depth, four stories high, with iron pillars, window caps, &c., and stone, or marble facing. It will be occupied exclusively by the Messrs. FRIEND, as a wholesale and retail Clothing Store. The Architects are MOFATT & SCHNEIDER.

A MOVING SCENE.—Our streets present a moving scene just now. "Every few" hours, some wooden building is raised upon rollers, and, wheeling into the street, walks off to parts unknown, to make room for brick stores. Lively times the mechanics will have this year.

By the way, those gentlemen who dig up the pavement in order to set their posts in the operation of moving, should be compelled to place them in good order again.

NEW YORK PAPERS.—Thanks to the News Boys on the Lake Shore Rail Road, we last night received New York papers of Wednesday morning—some days ahead of the Mail. Uncle Sam ought to take pattern by the Express Companies and Newsboys.

DESERVED CREDIT.—The Chicago papers all mention the capture in this City of the burglars who robbed the store of Cooley, Wadsworth & Co., in Chicago, and give due credit to our Chief of Police, WM. BECK, and his associates. The Democrat says:

The Chief of Police of Milwaukee deserves a great deal of credit for his promptness and efficiency in this case.

FRESH SILKS.—W. S. CANDEE & Co., at 160 East Water Street, are in receipt of new and rich Silks and other "Spring Fashions" by Express. See their card.

PEOPLE'S LINE.—DOUSMAN & Co., foot of Erie Street, are the Agents at this port, for the new line of Propellers described in the Sentinel of yesterday. See their advertisement.

YANKEE NOTIONS.—WALL sells this evening, at auction, a large lot of Yankee Notions. The sale commences at half past 7 P. M.

MILITARY.—The Light Guard have a Street Drill this afternoon, at 3 P. M. This fine Company now musters 90 active members on its roll.

NEW BRIDGE AT ONEIDA STREET.—See Comptroller's notice, inviting proposals for building a new bridge across the river at Oneida Street.

ENGINEERS' AND SURGEONS' INSTRUMENTS.—Mr. FRANK, a skilful and experienced mechanic, gives notice through our advertising columns, that he is prepared, at 292 East Water Street, to manufacture, or put in repair, all Engineering, Philosophical and Surgical instruments.

☞ The steamer Huron, which arrived day before yesterday from Chicago, brought 1150 bus oats, 90 bbls highwines, and 52 bbls molasses.

ANOTHER.—The schooner Pilot, formerly registered at Oswego, of 124 tons register, has been purchased by DAVID ROBERTS of this city, and added to our Milwaukee fleet.

[Advertisement.]

A PERFUMED BREATH.—What lady or gentleman would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath, when, by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" as a dentrifice, would not only render it sweet but leave the teeth white as alabaster? Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate their friends will never mention it. Pour a single drop of the "Balm" on your tooth-brush and wash the teeth night and morning. A fifty cent bottle will last a year.

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION may easily be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers." It will remove tan, pimples and freckles from the skin, leaving it of a soft and roseate hue. Wet a towel, pour on two or three drops, and wash the face night and morning.

SHAVING MADE EASY.—Wet your shaving-brush in either warm or cold water, pour on two or three drops of "Balm of a Thousand Flowers," rub the beard well and it will make a beautiful soft lather much facilitating the operation of shaving. " Fifty Cents. FRENCH & Co., proprietors, N. York, and for sale by all druggists.

☞ Among the various condiments offered to the public as a zest for Soups, Fish, Meats, Game, &c., &c., helping digestion and promoting the General health Lea & Perrins' Worcestershire Sauce stands unequalled.

The testimony of medical men in Europe and America attest its virtues.

Since the introduction of this Sauce into the United States by Messrs. John Duncan & Sons, of New York, some fifteen years since, the demand has become very large, and its use so general, that it is now considered "indispensable" on the Breakfast, Luncheon, Dinner and Supper tables. feb6d1y

"The work can scarcely fail of interesting deeply the American reader. Lady Mary lived and wrote in the first half of the eighteenth century, when our land was a component portion of the British empire, and consequently her genius and her fame are ours by inheritance. Her Letters will be found valuable as well as amusing, aiding the students of history to catch the manners and opinions of English society in high life—when the dominant power of the realm, at the time Benjamin Franklin and his co-patriots in this western world were working out the problem of American independence and popular sovereignty."

ARRIVAL OF THE ASIA!

DETAILS OF HER NEWS.

New York, April 4.

The Asia reached her dock about 8 P. M.—Her dates are to the 22nd; no news of the Pacific. It is generally believed the Treaty of Peace will be signed Saturday 22nd, or Monday 24th, in the event of the delay the armistice would be extended to April 30. No other news of importance. The Prussian representatives took their seats the 11th.

The actual business of the conference is said to be over, and a committee of 7 from the Representatives from each of the Powers is engaged in drawing up a treaty of Peace. The committee consists of Mr. DeBourqueney, Lord Crawley, Count Buol, Baron Bruno, Count Cavour, and Ali Pascha. The papers are full of congratulatory addresses respecting the infant Napoleon.

We have also a few editorials on the subject of American affairs.

The export of breadstuffs from the Kingdom Naples has been resumed.

The Austrian correspondent has the following dated March 10th and 13th: Omar Pacha has arrived at Constantinople.

Great mortality exists among the French in the Crimea.

The health of French at Constantinople was improving.

The fortifications at Nicolaeff were strengthened.

Gen. Luderes has ordered all officers on furlough to return.

A letter from Kertsch says the news of the armistice produced a profound sensation of joy along the shores of the sea of Azoff. Business became suddenly active. The imperial foundry has been closed, this would seem to confirm the report of the intention of the court of Russia, to abandon and close all its maritime establishments on the Black sea. On the 11th all the batteries and ships of the Allies fired a salute in honor of the birth of Napoleons son. Letters from the camp in Crimea extend from March 3d to 7th, and are chiefly filled with the weather.

General Codrington issued general orders on the second, forbidding firing upon the enemy, until the expiration of the armistice.

March 31st—The line of the aqueduct, running along the left bank of the Schroy—is the limit of seperation between the English and Prussian armies.

FRANCE.—Mr. Buchanan has introduced his successor (Mr. Dallas,) to the diplomatic corps, and on the 14th transferred to him the charges of the ambassy. Mr. B. has gone to Paris and will probably return home in the steamer leaving Liverpool, April 16th or 19th, there is a report from the Crimea that two divisions of the army the Highlanders, and 3rd and 4th division under Sir Col. Campbell will immediately proceed to Canada.

FRANCE.—The Emperor had been the recipient of numerous congratulatory addresses on the birth of his son.

An amnesty was proclaimed to all political offenders who will return and take the required oath of allegiance.

Generals Rodan, Can Robert and Bosquet are raised to rank of Marshals of France. Mr. Fould and Admiral Hamilton received grand crosses of the legion of honor.

It is calculated from statistical tables that the number of children born on March 15th amount to 2500. Each child is to receive a gift of 5000 francs; all the boys must be named Louis and all the girls Eugenie.

Prince Jerome is recovering.

SPAIN.—A despatch from Paris dated 19th, is as follows—the State of Spain excites great alarm here.

The Spanish Government has been warned, and the frontiers are well guarded. A dispatch from Madrid, same date, reports all its tranquil.

PARIS Friday—The Empress and young Prince continue to get on well.

The following is from Maxwell's Circular, dated 22d march: The wind having been unfavorable during the week, imports of Breadstuffs from America are limited. Yesterday being good Friday, we have only held one market day since our last.

The advance in wheat noticed in our last has not been maintained and the present tendency is downward. Demand limited; quotations for red range from 9?,8d to 10?,4d; Canadian 10s 4da 10?d; for 70 pounds fine white which is exceedingly scarce 11s 4da11s8d; flour of fine quality meets a fair sale at former quotations, but inferior kinds are difficult to move. Indian corn has been much depressed and prices are 2s lower per quarter. Richardson, Spencer & Co. report as follows—Since Tuesday trade has been very dull; wheat can be bought at much reduced rates; flour nominal; unchanged. Indian corn, no buyers at 10s under Tuesday prices.

The London market was unchanged—consols 91¼a92¾—Money 92¼a92¾ for account—Barring Bros & Co. report American securities quiet and unchanged.

From Mexico.
